Media Policy

- ICE Totally Gaming is open to accredited gaming industry media only, unless under prior agreement with the organisers (Clarion Events) or if they are the guest of an ICE exhibitor. In this event the host exhibitor must provide the organisers with written undertakings to take full responsibility for the actions and behaviour of invited non-trade media.
- Consumer and other non-gaming media arriving at ICE Totally Gaming must go to the press registration desk which is situated at the Custom House entrance to ExCeL and sign the legally binding ICE T&Cs governing their behaviour onsite.
- Exhibitors will be required to collect their invited media at registration, be responsible for their actions at all times, escort them from the show, take receipt of their entry badge and return it to ICE Press Officer Chris Jones.
- Consumer and other non-gaming media must provide written confirmation that all film and content taken at ICE is the intellectual property of the organisers (Clarion Events) and cannot be used or broadcast without their prior written permission.
- In the event of a member of the non-gaming media gaining access without the above permission or if they have gained entry to ICE Totally Gaming using false information or credentials or have deliberately withheld information, they will be ejected from the exhibition. Film and content taken at ICE will remain the intellectual property of the organisers (Clarion Events) and cannot be used or broadcast.
- Entry is at the discretion of the ICE organisers, who reserve the right to exclude any person(s) without prejudice.
